JURISDICTION

7. This is an admiralty and maritime claim within the meaning of Rule 9(h) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Jurisdiction is predicated upon 28 U.S.C. §1333 and the General Maritime Law of the United States.

FACTS

8. On or about August 4, 2007, a consignment consisting of 1,920 cases of fresh avocados, laden into container number TRLU1956488 and then being in good order and condition, were delivered to M/V CSAV RIO PETROHUE and the in personam defendants and/or their agents in San Antonio, Chile, for transportation to Long Beach, California in consideration of an agreed upon freight and pursuant to CSAV bill of lading number CHIW01G134228 dated August 4, 2007.

9. Thereafter, the consignment having been loaded aboard the M/V CSAV RIO PETROHUE, CSAV bill of lading number CHIW01G134228 was issued, and the vessel sailed for its intended destination.

10. Following discharge it was discovered that the consignment was not in the same good order and condition as when received by the defendants, but instead had sustained damages during transit.

11. Upon inspection, it was determined that the damages sustained to the avocados during transit were the result of exposure to higher than optimum temperatures during the voyage while the consignment was in the care and custody of CSAV and/or their agents.

12. As a result of the damages sustained to the shipment, Safex sustained a loss.

13. The damage to the aforementioned cargo was not the result of any act or omission of the plaintiff but, to the contrary, was due solely as the result of the negligence, fault, neglect, breach of contract of carriage, unseaworthiness and bailment on the part of the defendants.

14. At all times relevant hereto, a contract of insurance for property damage was in effect between Safex and M&F, which provided coverage for, among other things, loss or damage to the consignment.

15. Pursuant to the aforementioned contract of insurance between Safex and M&F, monies have been and will be expended on behalf of Safex to the detriment of M&F due to the damages sustained during transit.

16. As M&F has sustained damages as a result of said expenditures, expenditures rightly the responsibility of the defendants, M&F has an equitable right of subrogation and is subrogated, to the extent of its expenditures, to the rights of its insured with respect to any and all claims for damages of against the defendants.

17. Plaintiff and its predecessors in title have performed all of the conditions precedent on their part to be performed under the terms of the said contract.

18. By reason of the foregoing, plaintiff has been sustained losses which will be shown with specificity at trial, no part of which has been paid, although duly demanded, which are presently estimated to be no less than $17,000.00.

19. Plaintiff has a maritime lien against the M/V CSAV RIO PETROHUE for the damages referred to herein and will enforce that lien in these proceedings.

20. All and singular the matters alleged herein are true and correct. Plaintiff reserves the right to amend and supplement this complaint, as further facts become available.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays:

1. In rem service of process be issued against the M/V CSAV RIO PETROHUE, her engines, boilers, tackle, furniture, apparel, etc.; that the vessel be seized and that all those claiming an interest in her be cited to appear and answer under oath both all and singular the matters aforesaid;

2. The M/V CSAV RIO PETROHUE her engines, boilers, tackle, furniture, apparel, etc., be condemned and sold to satisfy the judgments herein in favor of plaintiff;

3. The Court order, adjudge and decree that defendants COMPANIA SUD AMERICANA DE VAPORES S.A., AMERICAN TRANSPORTATION GROUP, the M/V CSAV RIO PETROHUE be found joint and severally liable and pay to plaintiff the losses sustained herein, together with pre-judgment and post judgment interest thereon and their costs; and;

4. That this Court grant to plaintiff such other and further relief as may be just and proper.
